

We gather for worship each Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m. in the church sanctuary. Services are informally traditional: not stiff and boring, but not a rock concert, either. We incorporate video as appropriate, and our youth creative arts teams (puppets, dance, drama) often contribute. The Sanctuary choir sings almost every Sunday, and soloists also participate on an occasional basis.