

The gospel offers disciples an opportunity to be partners with God in the work that He is doing to bring all things into conformity with His will. In a single word, this partnership is what we call "missions."

We offer a variety of missions opportunities, from one-day events to on-going groups.